

CANDIDATE DESCRIPTION: PRESIDENT of the BOARD

This is an extraordinary opportunity for an individual who is passionate about the success of LCF's programs and who has a track record of board leadership. The selected Board President will have achieved leadership stature in business, government, philanthropy, or the nonprofit sector. His/her accomplishments will allow him/her to attract other well-qualified, high-performing board members.

Ideal candidates will have the following qualifications:

- Extensive professional experience with significant executive leadership accomplishments in business, government, philanthropy, or the nonprofit sector
- Demonstrated success as a nonprofit board member or board chair
- Track record of building credibility in the funding community that has resulted in significant donations to a nonprofit
- A commitment to and understanding of LCF's mission and programs, preferably based on experience
- Savvy diplomatic skills and a natural affinity for cultivating relationships and persuading, convening, facilitating, and building consensus among diverse individuals
- Excellent written and oral communication skills coupled with natural affinity for public speaking
- Personal qualities of integrity, credibility, and a passion for improving the lives of LCF's beneficiaries

Service as LCF's President of the Board of Directors is without remuneration, except for administrative support.
